Case No. 18-CR-037-JED

SENTENCING MEMORANDUM

COMES NOW the Defendant, Christina Ann Dempsey, by and through appointed counsel, Scott Troy, and respectfully submits this Sentencing Memorandum on the following grounds, to-wit:

1. Assistant United States Attorney Tim Faerber advises he has no objection to this request.

2. Ms. Dempsey was originally arrested on State court charges (CF-2015-248-C) on September 2, 2015. Ms. Dempsey was held without bond and the case was dismissed on June 6, 2016. The facts and allegations contained in the State's criminal information are identical to the above styled indictment.

3. As Ms. Dempsey served some 9 months in State court custody on the related charges that she has pled to in the indictment. Pursuant to the indictment, she respectfully requests the Court grant her credit for time served.

WHEREFORE, premises considered, Christina Ann Dempsey respectfully requests the Court grant her unopposed motion for credit for time served for the above stated reasons.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Scott Troy
